

Irish Primary Schools Girls League Finals 2011

by John Alfred

The ChessZ Girls-only League Finals were played in Limerick on Tuesday 10-May2011 at the Carlton Hotel in Castletroy.

Local leagues had been running around Ireland and winners turned up for the Finals. The tournament format was a swiss tournament with team scores comprised of the sum of each team members individual scores. Clocks were used on all games with a fast-rapidplay time of 15 minutes.

Six teams and one individual participated giving a total of 25 girls.

Scoil-Ide from Corbally in Limerick city took the lead early on and maintained it right to the end. In fact going into the 6th and last round, they had a 4.5 point lead and could not be caught. The same team came 5th last year and had the same team members this time.

Last years Girls Winners, Templemary NS, from Killala Co Mayo came 2nd with St Mary's from Carrigaline Co Cork, 3rd.

Nora MacNamee took the Irish Primary Schoolgirls Title by winning all her 6 games. Second place went to last years Girls Champion, Diana Mirza (and this years Irish u12 Girls Champion). Shauna Burke took 3rd place losing only one game and that was to Diana Mirza.
